CONFERENCE ROOM SCHEDULE

In the conference room - Members can communicate with LIVE text chat, LIVE video and LIVE audio features at anytime presently.

During actual LIVE conferences, meetings, seminars or during our LIVE TV shows, members and supporters must obtain a password from the Foundation administrator and is an invitation R.S.V.P. only attendance. These private conferences will have an assigned Moderator who will operate the room. There will be strict conference room rules that must be adhered to during any of these events.

WEBCAM – A member or supporter having a webcam would be a big plus for any member being able to hear and see live what is taking place, live text chatting, as well as the member/supporter being seen and heard by all attendees through their personal webcam.

NO WEBCAM – A member or supporter having no webcam can still enjoy hearing and seeing the event content and will still be able to text chat live.

There will be no swearing, obscene pornography, disrespecting any attendee, personal agenda discussed between attendees during any scheduled event as if in a public domain environment.

All attendees must use their real names as known to the foundation for member, supporters, and guests. No nicknames will be accepted unless received in writing by the President known to him by your real name and validated by an active email noting your real name. Inasmuch, the Foundation reserves the right to disqualify any nickname request where the individuals real name cannot be substantiated as being lawful, with the full extent of NYS law, FRAUD UNIT.

The Moderator will have full control at all times to allow anyone to be seen and heard in the center big picture screen. All events shall be conducted respecting all attendees and guests during an event with professionalism being courteous at all times noted above. Any member/supporter or guest for that matter found to be disrespectful by the Moderator, is subject to a warning, and if not complied with that violator shall be kicked out of the room immediately and banned from entering future events.
